Spring is in the air

Rain, wind, sun, great days in Wingello

When you are next visit the shop have a look at the transformation in front of the Wingello Village Collectables store. The shop's outside walls and windows have been repaired and replaced and repainted, a door has appeared with a great landing, Sandstone from Bundanoon Quarry is being laid by a very talented local stone mason, Terry Walsh, the waste collection and services have been screened and more changes are on the way.

Soon this area will be a great place to relax and enjoy your time, meet locals and have a great drink and some quality food.

Check out all the ongoing developments!

Spring is a great time

Spring in Wingello is when the weather goes through a recalibration. Winter fights a losing battle with Summer, flowers cautiously peek out of the ground, realise it is their time and then boom! Colours abound everywhere.

Remember when we had the "Bury a Bulb" day last May? You can now see the results all around Wingello with Daffodils and a few other bulbs blooming.

It is great to see the results of that co-operative effort a few months ago.

Also blooming are the blossoms on the Maple trees we have planted along the shop's northern border. I caught a

Friday Nights are busy

If any of you have been out and about on Friday evenings, you will have noticed the store to be quite a busy place.

It is best to book ahead to avoid disappointment, but we always offer take away for any of our meals.

If it is a multi part meal, we supply each component in separate containers to ensure you end up with a good meal - and not all mushed together!

Get on the email list

As we change the Friday night special meals every week, you can stay informed by getting on our email list.

All we will send you is the weekly Friday Menu and the monthly Wingello News.

Charlotte is back

Make sure you welcome Charlotte back to Wingello. We have missed her for the last six weeks while she has been away on holidays so get her to share her travel stories with you.

Menu Changes

We have dropped Steak Sandwiches from our menu. It just wasn't good enough. Our burgers are impressive and the breakfasts are fantastic, but the steak sandwiches were only OK.

So now we are pleased to offer:

Roast Beef Sandwiches

The Roast beef is grass fed beef provided by the Marulan butchers. This may come from Wingello sources or other high quality farms. It is always succulent and tasty.

This is roasted on Friday evenings and offered as part of the Roast Beef dinner. The excess is then offered on thick white bread with gravy, lettuce and tomato.

The taste is sensational!

In the next issue we will provide a photographic comparison of our burgers with some of typical takeaway burgers you may be used to.

Placemat Wingello: Where checking the rain gauge is compulsory.
