Friday Night Changes

Restaurant ends - full menu begins

More options on Friday nights

We are making some changes to our dining options. We have been running a restaurant on Friday nights since July and it has proved reasonably popular.

However, when comparing the work and the return for that effort we have decided to make some changes.

This Friday (12 November) will be the last Restaurant night. Taking its place will be extended dining and take away using our very popular regular menu.

We will be open on Fridays until 7:30pm, offering eat in or take away from our full regular menu including our famous Wingello hamburgers, Egg and Bacon rolls, delicious Roast Beef sandwiches, tasty herb Focaccia buns and of course our grilled or fried fish.

Chips - Hot Chips

We have finally perfected the chip. Our first efforts at making our own chips were inspired by the ingredients of commercially frozen chips - "Contents 96% Potato"! "What is the rest?" you may ask. It is the oil in which the chips are pre-cooked - normally vegetable or canola oil.

When we tried the frozen chips we always had a layer of oil sitting on the top of the fryer. Ick!

So we researched the best oil for chips - Sunflower Oil - and then had to work out how to reduce the variability caused by the potatoes. Being a fresh product, potatoes vary in quality. However, we always want the best in the end product. Potatoes vary in starch and sugar content and the way to reduce the excess is to parboil the chips.

So we wash and chop the potatoes, parboil them and fry them once. The chips are then cooled and frozen ready for customer orders.

The final fry is on demand and at the correct temperature to allow for a crispy chip that is smooth inside. As the skin is still on the chip and we use high quality Sunflower oil, it actually has flavour without the oily residue.

Yum.

Wingello 175th Birthday Party

On Saturday 5 December, at 2:30pm, we will be hosting a birthday party for Wingello. In December 1834 Wingello began and this year marks the 175th birthday of that event.

Come along to Maple Lane (the area between the shop and the hall bordered by the beautiful Maple trees in bloom) and we will be providing a sausage sizzle, some drinks and the company of fellow villagers.

We will also arrange for some games behind the hall including:

- ★ Potato Sack race
- ★ Coffee Cup carrying race
- ★ Three legged race
- ★ and more.

Seeing as this is so close to Christmas, Santa will also be popping in at around 3:00pm with some lollies for all the kids.

Christmas Cards

We have just received boxed Christmas Cards from For Arts Sake - the distributors of the great greeting cards we have available all year round.

A box of 8 cards with envelopes only costs between $7.95 and $14.95 so you can get better quality cards for a reasonable price.

This year, For Arts Sake is donating 10% of the wholesale cost of these cards to the Make A Wish foundation.

Local Doings

Since our last issue we have seen a number of special events in Wingello.

The Highland Fling

We had 1800 bike riders come through Wingello as part of the Highland Fling. Unfortunately there were two accidents, with one bike rider breaking both his wrists in the Wingello State Forest, and another injured between Bundanoon and Wingello.

This is the first major accident in the Wingello State Forest stage of the Fling in 5 years. Considering the amazing profile of the hills and valleys the bikes ride upon, we have been extremely fortunate.

Did you know that the Mountain Bike trails in the forest are of World Class standard? We have lots of riders visit the forest during the year and discovering the secret oasis of Wingello.

Bill O'Reilly Match

We had the annual Bill O'Reilly memorial cricket match in October. This event brings back many lovers of cricket, remembering Wingello's great association with Cricket.

Cricket Trivia Night

The Wingello Tigers Cricket Club had another successful trivia night. This is a fun event held in the hall where you can join a table and have a good night participating in a well organised trivia competition.

Book in early when the next trivia night is organised.
