A Born Again Wingello Store

It is amazing the change repairs and a new paint job can make to a great building.

Local Painters team up to brighten up the shop.

Now that we have the new roof and the inside and outside walls have been upgraded, painting was needed to both protect and enhance the store.

Did you notice how much brighter the shop now is?

The inside paintwork was completed by local Painter Brendan Den (0417 619 035)

This included getting just the right tint and asking me really hard questions like "Is this the colour you want?"

I immediately hand passed the responsibility to one who would make a better choice - Lana.

Brendan Den making the inside paint just the right colour.

Over the course of several late nights Brendan and Alessandro sealed the gaps in the wood ceiling, undercoated and painted the ceiling, upper walls, new DVD shelves, door surrounds and feature beam covering.

Meanwhile, another local Painter - Craig Cooper (0457 868 288) has been painting and protecting the outside of the shop. Have a look at the Southern side of the building where my new professional offices are being updated.

The walls have been repaired and painted, the gutters, porch and walls now all match the standards set when we created Maple Lane.

Soon we will be upgrading the Northern side of the shop with Post Office Boxes and upgraded paint work.

When it is warmer, we will be able to repaint the concrete front section of the store.

Daniel Hill (0458 060 331), the local carpenter who has done all the recent upgrades, has been busy in less visible areas rebuilding a storeroom, installing sunlights and updating the Northern side administration area.

By the end of August this should all be done!

A better view of the crossing

Safety work done locally

Local residents have written many times to the council asking for some action regarding the obvious dangers of the railway crossing at Wingello.

Reports of multiple car accidents and pedestrian near misses are all responded to with standard letters citing lack of funding, forwarding of the letter to the Railways or State Government.

They have done one "major" remedial action.

The Give Way signs are larger.

As we all know this has made virtually no difference to traffic problems at the intersection.

One problem we had is the visual obstruction caused by the overgrown gardens opposite the store. Northbound vehicles turning left to cross the train lines often only had scant few seconds to see any pedestrians crossing the lines.

Now visibility is improved thanks to the father of two of the students of the Wingello School. Rather than just waiting for "someone to do something" he has acted as a responsible

Dad and made the area safe by clearing the overgrowth. During August this area will be updated and fully cleared, with the addition of low maintenance, low height flowering plants.

We can take pride in our own village and work to improve the safety for our children.

Great Start Healthy Breakfast Competition

Students at the Wingello Public School will be participating in the Live Life Well @ School and Crunch & Sip programs. (Who makes up these names?)

The programs are designed to promote healthy living.

The children will be designing a healthy breakfast and posting their entries at the shop.

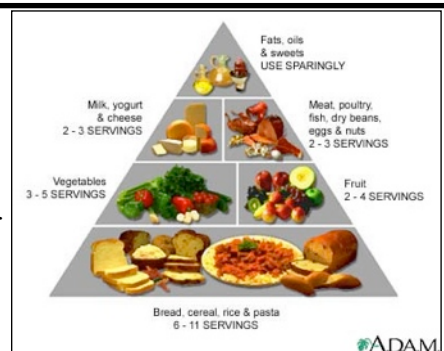

Entries are judged on:

- Originality
- Inclusion of food from the five food groups
- Presentation and Taste
- Popularity and,
- A poster promoting their breakfast.

You can see the entries on the wall next to the milk refrigerator at the shop.

I reckon our English Big Breakfast has bits from each of the five food groups, but it is probably a bit big for a primary school breakfast!

- Grain = Toast
- Fruit = Tomato
- Vegetable = Lettuce, Baked Beans, Potatoes (chips), Onions and mushrooms
- Meat = Sausages, Bacon, Eggs
- Just add some milk and you're set! Perhaps a Cappuccino or Milkshake?

You can all be part of the project by checking out the entries, giving them a try and voting for the best menu.

The competition begins on 2 August and runs to 1 September 2010.
